DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE DIRECTIVE NO. 1/10¹

SECURITY POLICY GUIDANCE ON LIAISON RELATIONSHIPS WITH FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE ORGANIZATIONS AND FOREIGN SECURITY SERVICES

Pursuant to Section 102 of the National Security Act of 1947, Executive Order 12036 and National Security Council Intelligence Directives, the following is established as security guidance to representatives of US departments, agencies and military commands who conduct, supervise or coordinate liaison with foreign intelligence and security services.

1. The fact of broad, general intelligence cooperation with countries or groups of countries with which the United States maintains formal military alliances or agreements (e.g., NATO) is unclassified.

2. The fact of intelligence cooperation between the United States and a specific governmental component in an Allied country (see 1 above), or general description of the nature of intelligence cooperation between the United States and any Allied country is normally classified not less than Confidential.

¹This directive supersedes DCID 1/10 effective 18 May 1976

3. The fact of intelligence cooperation between the United States and specifically named foreign countries and governmental components thereof with which the United States is not allied is normally classified not less than Secret.

4. Details of or specifics concerning any intelligence liaison or exchange agreement will be classified according to content.

5. The identities of foreign governmental or military personnel who provide intelligence pursuant to such agreements or liaison relationships will be protected at the same level of classification which applies to the fact of the intelligence cooperation, or at such different level as may be required by their governments or individual circumstances.

6. Information classified in accordance with paragraphs 2, 3, 4 and 5 above shall not be released to any foreign country or its representatives except by the mutual agreement of the United States and the foreign country whose intelligence cooperation is involved.

7. Information classified in accordance with this guidance shall be treated as foreign government information pursuant to Executive Order 12065 and, unless specified for a shorter period of classification by the foreign government(s) concerned, marked for classification for a period of thirty (30) years from origin and subject to declassification review at that time. This directive may be cited as the authority for the classification and extension of classification of information subject to the policy herein. Information about the nature of a relationship may be declassified only in accordance with the mutual desires of the United States and the foreign government.

8. This directive does not apply to any liaison relationship that is concerned with U.S. internal security functions, or with criminal or disciplinary matters that are not directly related to foreign intelligence.
